

by Lulu Fletcher

DEBUNKING THE "SCARY" OR CARDS OF "CONCERN"

Myth: You are possessed, evil is coming at you, you are evil, you are going to hell, bad things are going to happen, bad news.

Actual Meanings: Restriction, limitation, unhealthy relationship, questioning one's sexuality, mental health concerns, deprivation addictions, obsession

Associated with: Capricorn (hard work and ambition)

Horns: Unrefined nature, unfaithfulness

Wings: Nocturnal

Bird Feet: Air Head and Pentagram; Energy being pulled downward, lower thought processes, a need to be grounded

Hand: Things being openly visible, narcissism, showman ship

Tails: Acknowledge what remains of our primitive nature, luring

The Chains: Co-dependency, material bonds, caught in a vicious cycle

Myth: You are going to die, terrible things are going to happen, illness causing death,

Actual Meanings: Birth, beginning, new, renewal, there may be something left to do in order to bring about positive change. The clean-up crew.

The White Horse: Strength, completion, (the black and white represents the contracts of life)

The Black Rider: Advising to take consistent action. Warns against unjustified harshness or aggression

The Armour: Protection. Death cannot be destroyed. When it is time – it is time.

The Flag: News, announcement. Black = the absence of light. White Flower = Harvest time, purity, cleansing and rebirth.

The Ship: The changing phases of life The ferry that carries us to the underworld, reincarnation,

King with no Crown: Death of ego, loss of control, impotence, respect paid to another

Religious Figure: Religion, final stage has been reached

Children: Innocence, show no fear, accepting death as a normal part of life

Sun: Cycles, hope, brighter days ahead, promise of a new day

The City: Promise of a new land, new beginning, returning home

Myth: Earthquakes, danger, death

Actual Meanings: Change, uncertainty, turbulence, fear, both falling and flying, upheaval.

Falling Figures: Flying, falling, take the plunge, dive right in, jumped or pushed

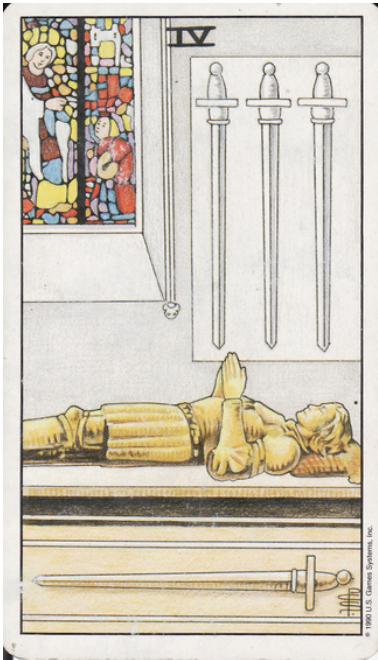

Lightening: A bolt from the blue, ideas (W) = We. Life energy

Flames: Passion, destruction, wild aggression, an actual fire

The Tower: Protection, power, security, confinement

Crown: Loss of control, lack of self-protection, loss of self importance, loss of status/job

Droplets: Grace, a firestorm

Myth: Death, ghosts, funerals

Actual Meanings: Paralysis, intensive care, illness, anaesthetic, shock and trauma

The Dirty Yellow: Sun mixed with shadow, fever, unwellness, mental health concerns, lack of clarity

The Mosaic: Solving puzzles, putting one's self back together, finding perspective, recognizing patterns, fragmented memories

The Window: Contrasts between inner and outer worlds, unable to reach the world outside, protection from outer influences

The Word PAX: Latin for peace, contentment satisfaction, can be withdrawal into a world of fantasy

Brought to you by

www.lulufletcher.com.au